

Mathilda and miss Honey is as one of best friendship in children art between elder and younger, this friendship between Mathilda and her teacher miss Honey, and many children can identify with having a special relation with a teacher of them, the way that with Matilda grows up through caring of miss Honey makes the isolation of Matilda to a happy end, the story tells about Mathilda who doesn't value from her family and she hasn't any body who can share with her lovely things for her, and miss Honey has a lot of hard situations in her life, where she lives above the line of poor, but together they have the trust for taking which they want, and passing the time with persons who respect them.